

My Biography

1943.02.05 Born in the Shinonoi town (Now Nagano city, Japan)
1966.03 Graduated from the Waseda University (Law course)
1966.04.01 Found employment at the Mitsubishi Bank (Now The Mitsubishi Tokyo UFJ Bank)
1969.10.10 got married to AKIKO
1994.06.20 Change my job: President & Vice President of the Haneda Concrete Industry Co. Ltd and its group companies
1998.06 Vice President of the All Japan Association of

Retaining-wall Engineering

2012.09

Retired from all Job

<Biography of Philately, especially Lithuania philately>

1954.01

Began to collect stamps, mainly Japanese stamps

1956

First met with Lithuania stamps (1940 Michel#437~442), I did not know the nationality of them during my junior high school age.)

1959

I knew that they are Lithuanian stamps. My Geography teacher of high school taught me that Lithuania have been an independent country between 1918 and 1940. But now Lithuania is one of USSR republics.)

1987

Joined to Japan Philatelic Society Foundation

1989.08

I knew "Baltic Way" by the press.

1990.02

I knew that Lithuania issued stamps on a JPS magazine "YUSHU".

1991.03

I got first Angel stamps and began to collect Lithuanian stamps.

1992

Joined to Lithuania Philatelic Society (N.Y)

I began to exchange Japanese stamps for Lithuania stamps with Lithuanian friends.

1993.01

First my article about the philately of Lithuania and other Baltic countries on the philatelic magazine "YUSHU".

1993.12

I received letter from Dr. Leonas Veržbolaukas. It is the start of our long friendly relations for philately. He is my best teacher for my Lithuanian Philately.

1999

LPS (New York) closed and I joined into LPS (Chicago.)

I knew President John Variakojis.

2002

Joined to the Philatelic Club "LITHUANICA"

I knew Mr. Antanas Jankauskas, Mr. Ričardas Vainora and Mr. Keimpe Leenstra (The Netherlands).

2010

My first competitive exhibition: "LITHUANIA Stamp of the Angel and the Vytis 1990-1993". I won the Vermeil Award at JAPEX2010.

2011

My first international Stamp Exhibition (FIP): "LITHUANIA Stamp of the Angel and the Vytis 1990-1993". I won the Large Silver at PHILANIPPON'11.

2013.11

elected "Honorary Member" of the LPS (Chicago).